Guest Speaker: Ed Ide with CGB gave a list of advice for all college students, especially freshmen.

1. Remember to thank the club sponsors.
2. Talk to people-every conversation is an opportunity
3. Everybody, even freshman, should put a resume together
4. We are all a salesman. You're always selling yourself.
5. Ask to have a conversation with a recruiter
6. Look nice and put together, dress for the job you're trying to pursue
7. Save money first and live life second, then you'll retire early
8. Always have a plan, even if it has to change
9. Go out and see the world
10. Don't let money make your decisions in life
11. Volunteer to do things you will fail at, it's the only way you'll learn
12. Don't let romance drive your decisions
13. People matter more than anything else. If you don't take care of people they won't take care of you

14. Always say please and thank you
15. Stick with something long enough to truly learn it before you move on

Advisor comments

-It's not what you know, it's who you know. Who you knows matters, so be sure to build social capital. Social capital is the idea that the connections you make with other people matter and have value. To do this take the opportunity to introduce yourself to someone you don't know.

Wheel of fortune-Ryan Chulupa picked the G and won $20. The $100 was in the S.

President, Hanna Mendenhall adjourned the meeting at 7:21 pm.
