This classy lady is a senior from Atlantic, IA majoring in Ag Business and Economics with a minor in Entrepreneurial Studies and International Agriculture. She enjoys running, tailgating, and she used to love showing cattle. Her favorite food is steak cooked medium. She has previously been involved on different committees in the Ag Business Club, and currently is serving on the AAEA committee. A couple pieces of advice she has for the underclassmen are to get involved and meet and get to know your professors. An interesting thing about this Ag Business Club member is she just got a new Border Collie puppy named Diesel. For all you Ag Business Boys, this bubbly, fun-lovin' gal is single and looking for a great guy to take her out for a night on the town!
